

Speech & Language Pathologist Interview Questions

1. What caused you to become interested in and study Speech/Hearing Science?
2. From where did you receive your graduate/undergraduate degrees?
3. Do you have your ASHA Cs?
4. What areas of S/L are you most interested in or do you feel are your strengths?
5. What type(s) of service delivery models have you implemented--value of each?
6. How might you provide classroom services for a teacher who might not understand your role, the child's needs, or just be reluctant to have another adult in her classroom?
7. What components would you feel are necessary to include in an evaluation/diagnostic report?
8. How might you evaluate a child for whom perhaps standardized testing has very limited applications?
9. Describe your computer/technology skills.
10. What continuing ed have you completed in the last year or so?
11. Are you familiar with Flexible Delivery or Problem solving model?
12. What are your thoughts on inclusion?/ on S/L pathology assistants?
13. When might you make a referral to OT? bilingual?